

Vacancy: Analyst

INTELLIGENT • INNOVATIVE • INTERNATIONAL

IVC Consulting is an exciting growing consulting practice that combines transfer pricing with advisory, corporate finance and valuations expertise. We serve startup and scaleup businesses as well as biggest asset management funds. Our professionals provide expert advice on the aspects of the cross-border scaling of the companies, such as transfer pricing, including modelling, documentation, controversy, financial transactions, operational, and strategic transfer pricing. Alongside transfer pricing our comprehensive solutions also encompass the coverage of valuations, accounting, process automation and international taxation.

We are searching for an Analyst to join our Baltic office in Vilnius.

Your role

To serve our clients, we need to develop an in-depth understanding of the clients' business and organisation. You will be involved in discussions with the top management of high-profile scaleups and fund managers. You will analyse the value chain of the business, prepare presentations, models and reports as well as together with senior colleagues advise the clients. We aim to include application of AI in the performance of professional services. Together we aim to cover all clients' cross-border growth needs: from structuring & modelling growth and transfer pricing, through the implementation and documentation of our suggestions; to monitoring the scaling and beyond.
